

The Morgan Stanley Finance Academy is now accepting applications for the 2026-2027 cohort

The Morgan Stanley Finance Academy (MSFA) is a five-month virtual program where students are immersed in Morgan Stanley's apprenticeship culture and receive an introduction to the financial services industry through skill-building sessions, real-world industry exposure, career mentorship and support from Morgan Stanley Institutional Securities Group (ISG) talent.

Through the program, students have the opportunity to:

- Receive career readiness training and support
- Gain an understanding of the Firm, industry, financial literacy, valuation concepts, and technology's growing role in financial services
- Partner with peers in a team competition simulating a real-life transaction
- Work hands-on to prepare and deliver a pitch to a Morgan Stanley client
- Be matched with a Morgan Stanley mentor to guide and empower them to achieve their full potential

Eligible candidates must be seniors at a U.S.-based high school, graduating in 2027, and have a minimum GPA of 3.4.

Students must complete all sections of the application including resume upload, essay response, and video response.

Meetings will be held virtually via Zoom, bi-weekly on Tuesdays, from 7:00-8:30 PM ET
